Statements from Associations Chair Nominations

Joseph Daly:

I'd love to be considered for Association Chair as I want to utilise and share my passion for student democracy. I'm deeply interested in legislative procedure, and I've familiarised myself with the standing orders for the Students' Association.

Since coming to university, I have been involved in a variety of organisations:

- Served as Sports Rep and Deputy Senior Student on the ABH/DRA Committees respectively, helped to organise Hall Balls and had to liaise with other committees
- Social Secretary on Music Fund (currently developing the website)
- Co-Founder of Irish Society (Treasurer)
- Co-Founder of and Head of Broadcasting for Polis (with articles analysing legislative procedure and voting; official coverage of the Students' Association Elections)
- Founder of Ballot Addict (personal project on election prediction worldwide)

I have previous experience in impartial debate moderation: last year, I chaired a debate on Scottish independence in Parliament Hall. I've also had prior experience in chairing and scheduling meetings in these organisations, along with creating minutes and writing agendas.

Through working on all these projects simultaneously, I'm very good at ensuring things get done; I've learnt how to work with others effectively, particularly in helping them improve their work (in particular, in refining Polis' structure and look, with occasional editing).

As I've tried to improve understanding of democratic procedure through many of my projects, I'd be deeply invested in doing the same for the Students' Association. Specifically, I want to demonstrate the importance of Councils to reverse the decline in election turnout.

Ruraidh Stewart:

I would like apply to be Association Chair I am passionate about social action and ensuring equal opportunities for all. I believe that having access to meaningful opportunities can have a positive impact on students university experience. In my role as an iwill ambassador, I worked to promote volunteering as a vessel of social mobility. As a young person, I was fortunate enough to be appointed as a rolling chairperson as member of the Junior Climate Challenge Fund Grants Panel, which awarded grants of more than £0.9m to youth-led projects across Scotland to provided support to other like-minded young people to set up and run their own self-directed projects. As part of this role, I contributed to the design application forms, the publicity materials for the fund as well as representing the fund at numerous national events and conferences. At the conclusion of this fund, I was co-opted to the Scottish Governments Climate Challenge Fund awarding grants exceeding £ 9M. In addition, I served as a member of the selection panel for the Queens Baton Relay in Highland leading up to the 2014 commonwealth games. I have served on the selection panel for the Youth United Social Action Awards. Through these roles, I have gained accreditation in Young Peoples

Grant Making and Developing Decision Making Skills I feel that my previous experience as a grant panel member and extensive service as a volunteer within the third sector shows I have the necessary background to be an effective chairperson of the team.

Maitreyi Tusharika:

Hello, I am Maitreyi, a third year Management student from India.

I love the bureaucratic yet chaotic aspect of being a chair, and with the recent structural changes that councils have undergone, I would love to be given the opportunity to lead it and ensure its success for yet another year.

I have promising experiences and skills to help navigate this success. I bring to the table (pun intended) a drive to achieve transparency and clear communication. I went out of my way to support freshers as First Years Officer 2020-21, and I see myself doing the same for the 30+ highly capable officers that I would have to work with.

Through this role, I would like to maintain a good working relation with the student body, as well as create a familiar and comfortable environment for officers to debate and discuss issues in. I hope to work with the SRC and SAF secretaries to make our social media presence engaging and accessible. I will also try to improvise where possible, and continue the great work that the past chair has put in to help councils function efficiently.”

Jake Steiner:

Hi, My name is Jake Steiner, and I'm a third-year IR and Econ student.

I always considered running for Association Chair, but each election week I decided not to do so only because of the lack of experience with the Councils and the standing orders specifically. I hope to bring my nine years of experience in Model UN, with roles ranging from participant, to chair, to conference organizer, to the position. I think the skills I've picked up in these roles would help me learn the Standing Orders very quickly. When chairing, I prize efficiency followed closely by encouraging healthy debate and organization. For example, I like (carefully, to allow for dissent) using unanimous consent to keep business moving forward.

On the transparency side, I remade the Hawaii Pacific Model United Nations (pacmun.org if you're curious) website from the ground up and focused on user-friendliness and availability of information. I hope to continue the work Morgan's done using Facebook to publicize meetings and passed motions. On accessibility, I like good ideas, and don't really care who has them. That's to say, I would be happy to assist anyone with getting a motion in front of councils.

If selected, I hope to work with Morgan and other Members over the next month to get up to speed on what is expected of the Chair, how to implement the standing orders, and how to properly execute the office.

Euan Gregory:

I bring considerable experience working both within the University as well as professional experience with several leading legal firms in Scotland.

As part of my role as the Vice-Principal Ambassador for Marketing and Student Experience at the University of St Andrews, I regularly attend school Careers Fair and have accompanied Admissions Representatives on student recruitment tours around the UK. I have learned to communicate effectively with people from different backgrounds and cultures whether it is a one-to-one discussion or a presentation to hundreds at a careers fair. I also work with the University's Digital Communications and Marketing teams on designing social media and print campaigns to publicise and promote the University and am confident these skills would be hugely beneficial to the Union's Councils.

I plan and coordinate events attended by over 10,000 prospective students every year. This requires liaising with many different departments from across the University who work on a 9-5 schedule as well as student groups working on very different and often erratic schedules. Bringing these entities together takes considerable planning, communication and working within several schedules as departments require different deadlines for finalising elements of the events. I am well practiced in working with multiple entities and chairing professional meetings and larger promotional events.

Lastly, with significant experience working in the personal injury departments of law firms including Balfour & Manson and Digby Brown and having worked as a researcher for a Tribunal Judge, I am accustomed to working with legislation and understand the requirements of crafting clear and concise motions.

Thank you very much for considering my application and I am happy to discuss or clarify any of the points that I have raised. I hope to be able to bring my significant experience to benefit the important work of the Union.

E21-01 Motion to update the Charities Campaign committee structure and constitution.

In affect from: Immediately

Review date: November

Owner: Amy Feakes

It is noted that:

1. The current Executive committee is made up of 14 members excluding the Convenor and DoSDA.
2. Every member of the executive committee is line managed by the Convenor who also works closely in supporting the current subcommittees: CATWALK, Events Team, Race2, RAG Week
3. The executive committee often has a high number of fourth-year students, and many departing committee members as they graduate.
4. There are several projects which require members of the campaign to help out, due to the workload, including our fundraising platform, the voting system, cloakrooms etc.
5. The Campaign currently cannot provide dedicated support to students taking part in individual or group fundraisers. Other Universities have been successful at this (Appendix C).

It is believed that:

1. Creating an executive committee and general committee would split the load of line managing committee members, relieving some pressure on the Convenor.
2. Splitting the Marketing Coordinator position into a Publicity coordinator and Design Coordinator would allow the Campaign to have greater outreach, raising awareness for our nominated charities and supporting the work of our charitable societies.
3. The Secretary role should be interviewed as they will now be required to line manage general committee members and they have a large amount of responsibility in the charity nomination system.
4. The Publicity Coordinator should be an interviewed role to ensure the candidate has relevant experience and will be a suitable fit in the Campaign.
5. The creation of General Member positions specifically for first years will make the campaign more accessible, bring in new students to the Campaign, and help with high-workload projects.
6. A new Challenges Subcommittee would work to improve the accessibility for students to large individual and group fundraisers. It will be of benefit to students, allowing them to work on their teamwork skills, challenge themselves and have a rewarding experience raising money for charity in the process.

It is resolved to:

1. Make the Executive Committee comprised of the Convenor and the following interviewed positions: Vice-Convenor, Secretary and Treasurer. This group would take on greater responsibilities in line managing members of the general committee.
2. Make a General Committee which will consist of all members of the current Executive Committee, along with new roles: Challenges Coordinator, two General Members, as well the Publicity and Design Coordinators (split from Marketing Coordinator).
3. To update Chapter 13 of the Association Subcommittee Constitutions to remove the current St Andrews Charities Campaign Constitution (Appendix A) and replace it with Appendix B.
